

Drystone Walls

At a glance...

Customised Provision

Duration Notes:	1 Day
Delivery Method:	Theory and Practical
Recognised by:	Lantra Awards

Introduction

This course is an introduction to the maintenance and construction of drystone walls to enable learners to undertake basic dry stone wall maintenance and construction.

Overview in brief

Over the duration of the course Learners will be:

- Aware of the need for correct safety procedures
- Aware of construction procedures
- Able to select and sort stone
- Able to undertake basic dry stone wall maintenance and construction.

Who should attend?

Conservationists, Landscapers, Farmers and Farm Workers and other land-based workers.

Other areas of interest

- Environmental Conservation
- Horticulture
- Agriculture
- Ecology.

