

Lantra Awards Severing Uprooted or Windblown Trees Using a Chainsaw

At a glance...

Qualification

Prerequisites:

Before registering on this qualification you must first have achieved the following:

- Cross-cut timber using a chainsaw
- Carry out maintenance of chainsaw and cutting system
- Fell and process trees up to 380mm
- Fell and process trees over 380mm.

Introduction

Prove your competence in dealing with windblown trees with our Severing Uprooted or Windblown Trees Using a Chainsaw qualification for Learners based in Scotland.

This qualification meets requirements for Professional Users to operate chainsaws in the Scotland.

Overview in brief

Our course will enable you to prove your knowledge, understanding, and competence in this specific area of forestry and arboriculture work.

If you achieve this award, you'll have the opportunity to move on to a recognised qualification that reflects the national standard.

This will help boost your career prospects.

For professional chainsaw operators working in forestry and arboriculture the industry recommendation is that for 'high risk' activities the minimum level of adequacy of training is to a certificate of competence or nationally recognised qualification where assessment is carried out independently of the training. This qualification meets this requirement.

The finer details

Our course involves a balanced mix of theory and practical sessions.

It covers all the , knowledge and skills required to sever uprooted or windblown trees using a chainsaw.

This includes understanding and being able to promote, health and safety and industry best practice.

Quality Assurance policies are in place to ensure that all assessments meet the independent assessment requirements for this sector.

Who should attend?

The units/Qualifications will enable those who are successful to continue and complete further training and/or assessment within the forestry and arboriculture sector including full-time competency-based qualifications and further specialised qualifications at the same or higher level.

Learners may choose to progress on to forestry and/or arboriculture Scottish Vocational Qualifications (SVQs), an apprenticeship framework and/or Higher National Certificates/Diplomas (HNC/Ds).

Certification is required for all professional forestry and arboriculture operations and is supported by industry good practice guidance, 'training and certification,

The Qualifications may also enable progression in the workplace.

What will be covered?

By the end of this course, you'll:

- Be able to promote health and safety and industry good practice
- Be able to sever uprooted and windblown trees using a chainsaw
- Understand relevant health and safety legislation and, practice
- Understand how to sever uprooted or windblown trees using a chainsaw.

